Dear Mr. McKay:

SUBJECT: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT REQUEST DON-NAVY-2019-005755
FY19-0020

This letter responds to your appeal of the subject request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) dated August 18, 2019.

The Pre/Post Negotiation Memorandum and the Technical Analysts with Addendum are being released in part pursuant to FOIA Exemption 5 (5 U.S.C §552 (b)(5)). The documents are pre-decisional, internal, and deliberative agency records marked source selection sensitive and for official use only. The documents were used for deliberations by Government contracting, technical, and legal personnel, establishing a negotiation position for contract Modification P00004. The subject contract remains open and has not been completed yet. There are various pending requests for equitable adjustment plus significant potential future claims and counterclaims overlapping the facts and circumstances surrounding Modification P00004. Release of the requested documents would adversely impact ongoing Government deliberations and future decisions under the contract.

In view of the above, you may consider this to be an adverse determination that may be appealed. If you have created an account in FOIA ONLINE, you may submit an appeal directly within the web-based system. To do that, you would log on to your account, retrieve your original request, and then click on the "Create Appeal" tab in the left-hand column. The basic information from your request will be duplicated for you, and then you can type in the basis of your appeal. If you prefer to use regular mail instead, you may submit an appeal to:

Department of the Navy
Office of the General Counsel
ATTN: FOIA APPEALS
1000 Navy Pentagon, Room 5A532
Washington, DC 20350-1000

Your appeal, if any, must be postmarked within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter and should include a copy of your initial request, a copy of this letter, and a statement indicating why you believe your appeal should be granted. Both the appeal letter and the envelope should bear the notation, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."
